

Weekly markets in Frankfurt am Main

Frankfurt has many different weekly markets. Many parts of the city have their own market, which takes place at least once a week and where you can buy fresh fruits and vegetables, meat, fish, cheese and dairy produce, flowers and many other products.

Kaiserstraße

Organic bakeries, food, flowers and many snack stands make up an unhurried market, where businesspeople and bankers meet for lunch.

Kaiserstraße

Opening hours: Tue and Thu 9 am – 7 pm

Bornheim

The market in Bornheim is famous for its nice atmosphere. It takes place around the small clock tower.

Near Berger Straße 194

Opening hours: Wed 8 am – 6 pm, Sat 8 am – 2 pm

Blumenmarkt Hauptwache/Biebergasse (Flower market)

The flower market at the Hauptwache building turns the city centre into a colourful garden.

Opening hours: Fri 9 am – 6.30 pm

Erzeugermarkt Konstablerwache (Farmers' market)

In midst of the big shopping street Zeil, there is a bustling market atmosphere. Farmers from the rural areas around Frankfurt offer a wide range of produce.

Opening hours: Thu 10 am – 8 pm, Sat 8 am – 5 pm

Schillerstraße

At Schillertstraße, close to Zeil, two completely different worlds clash, creating an interesting contrast: the Frankfurt Stock Exchange on one side of the street and a huge farmers' market on the other one.

Opening hours: Fri 9 am – 6.30 pm

Sachsenhausen

The weekly market in Sachsenhausen takes place at Südbahnhof (South Station), Diesterwegplatz, where both S and U trains stop. This makes it possible for commuters to buy some fresh cooking ingredients on their way home.

Opening hours: Fri 8 am – 6 pm

Flohmarkt Schaumainkai (Flea market)

At the Frankfurt flea market you can buy all sorts of second hand items and handicrafts. The market takes place at Schaumainkai between Eiserner Steg and Holbeinsteg.

Opening hours: Sat (except for national holidays) 9 am – 2 pm
