

Shopping Malls in and around Frankfurt

Zeilgalerie (Zeil gallery)

Zeil gallery is a building with glass walls and a futuristic interior design. 50 shops on 8 floors attract shopping victims. Most of the shops are boutiques or speciality stores. Do not miss the panoramic view of the skyline from the roof terrace.

Zeil, city centre

S, U train: Hauptwache

www.zeilgalerie.com

NordWestZentrum

A chic and completely roofed mall on two levels, which comprises about 150 stores, cafes and restaurants.

Erich-Ollenhauer-Ring Nordweststadt

U1; affordable multi-storey car park

www.nwz.frankfurt.de

HessenCenter

More than 115 specialized dealers, cafes and restaurants under one huge glass roof invite you to shop till you drop!

terminus of U 7 train, affordable parking facilities available

www.hessen-center-frankfurt.de

Main-Taunus-Zentrum

Located in the southern outskirts of Frankfurt, this mall houses 100 stores, a multiplex cinema and even free-of-charge (!) parking facilities for 4000 cars.

Main-Taunus-Zentrum Sulzbach

65843 Sulzbach

www.main-taunus-zentrum.de

Frankfurt Main Station

On the two levels of Frankfurt main station, you can buy delicatessen, flowers, accessories, shoes and all sorts of snacks and food. There is also a pharmacy. Shop opening hours vary, some stores are open until 10 pm, most restaurants stay open even longer.

Frankfurt Airport

At the airport, you can buy anything from travel accessories and food to books and designer clothes. The mall is especially popular for its international atmosphere, which makes you dream of going on holidays yourself. Most importantly: the shops have unusually long opening hours – they are open daily (even on Sundays) from 7 am to 9:30 pm.