Frankfurt for Groups 2019

Tour modules with and without accommodation

#visitfrankfurt
Welcome to Frankfurt

Frankfurt is a bustling international metropolis, yet one that has at the same time retained the charm of an ancient city surrounded by landscapes of green and gold. At night, its imposing skyline sparkles magnificently, while during the day it impresses with a diversified cultural scene, a merry apple wine district and an old town steeped in history and tradition.

We have put together a range of attractive tour modules that focus on the best sides of Frankfurt for groups of 15 or more persons, which may be individually combined as desired. And because it’s always a good idea to extend a stay in Frankfurt by another day or two, you may want to include our basic package with hotel accommodation in your plans and thus profit from the very affordable room rates made available to you by our partner hotels.

Our service team is happy to assist you when making your booking and to provide advice wherever needed. Last but not least, if you are planning to come to Frankfurt with a smaller group, don’t worry. We are sure to find the right package deal for you as well.

Basic Package incl. Overnight Stay

Whether you are visiting Frankfurt for the very first time or have already become acquainted with our fair city on previous trips – our weekend arrangements are the best way to discover the city’s most popular sightseeing attractions.

These overnight arrangements are available to groups of 15 or more persons for one, two or three nights. You’ll find a list of participating hotels on Page 10 of this brochure. The add-on modules described on the following pages may be individually selected as desired.

Tip: The months of July and August attract out-of-towners with a variety of summer festivals, balmy evenings along the River Main and the allure of traditional apple wine pubs. During these two months, our basic package is available for booking not just on weekends, but during the week as well.

Performance:
- Overnight accommodation incl. breakfast buffet at a hotel of your choice
- Two-hour guided city tour incl. admission to the rooftop observation platform of the MAIN TOWER; tours depart from the Tourist Information Office Römer

Year-round: Friday – Monday (excluding blackout dates)
July – August: Monday – Sunday

The Old Town Experience

Frankfurt is of course widely known for its skyline. But the metropolis on the River Main naturally has much more to offer than its banking high-rises: A quick break in the beating heart of Frankfurt is an absolute must of every Frankfurt visit. Take a leisurely walk through the winding laneways of the New Frankfurt Old Town and, after your walk, enjoy a typical Frankfurt meal together with your group at a time-honoured tavern.

Performance: Tour of the New Frankfurt Old Town starting at the Tourist Information Office Römer; typical Frankfurt meal incl. beverage
- approx. 3 hours
- bookable for up to 100 persons
- Monday – Sunday

€ 24 per person

Apple Wine for Beginners

Frankfurt apple wine is known to be the locals’ beverage of choice. During this tour, you’ll learn more about its history, tradition and method of production. The tour concludes with a sampling of apple wine accompanied by typical Frankfurt specialities, enjoyed at a traditional apple wine pub in Old Sachsenhausen.

Performance: Apple Wine Tour starting at the Tourist Information Office Römer incl. traditional Frankfurt specialities and an apple wine sample
- approx. 2 hours
- bookable for up to 150 persons
- Monday – Sunday

€ 19 per person

Apple Wine for Experienced Professionals

Frankfurt apple wine, enjoyed pure or as a mixture with lemonade or sparkling water, is not the only culinary delicacy that’s typically Frankfurt. The city is equally well known for a number of traditional dishes. Kick off your culinary education with an apple wine tour, which tells the tale of Frankfurt’s cult-like beverage, and finish it off with a visit of a cozy apple wine pub, where you’ll take part in an apple wine tasting session while also sampling some typically Hessian foods.

Performance: Apple Wine Tour starting at the Tourist Information Office Römer; samples of various Frankfurt specialities and apple wine varieties
- approx. 3 hours
- bookable for up to 120 persons
- Monday – Sunday

€ 49 per person
The Home of Eintracht Frankfurt

They’ve won the German Cup five times and are traditionally known as the Frankfurt Eagles. The colourful history of this club is presented in great detail and with great affection at the Eintracht Frankfurt Museum, located at the club’s home ground, the Commerzbank-Arena. The tour takes participants behind the scenes of this modern stadium, which has more than 50,000 enthusiastic fans supporting their team at every home game. The tour ends with a rustic, stadium-typical snack, enjoyed back at the museum.

Performance: Museum visit and stadium tour; football snack (bratwurst, pretzel, beverage)
- approx. 2 hours
- bookable for up to 70 persons
- Tuesday – Sunday

€19
per person

Frankfurt at Night

For many, Frankfurt presents itself from its most spectacular side in the evening, when the lights of its high-rises illuminate the night sky. Enjoy a typical Frankfurt dish for dinner before your cruise ship departs from its mooring at Eiserner Steg. Once under sail, you’ll be able to toast the serene eventide with a glass of sparkling, red or white wine while enjoying the scenic views.

Performance: One-hour evening cruise departing from Eiserner Steg incl. 1 glass of sparkling/red/white wine and a typical Frankfurt meal incl. beverage at a local restaurant
- approx. 3.5 hours
- bookable for up to 100 persons
- dates and times available upon request

Cultural Diversity Throughout the City!

Frankfurt’s series of riverside museums is among the world’s most important museum ensembles. Avant-garde and old masters, spectacular exhibitions, exciting local history, Goethe and his creative heirs, world culture and financial culture, design and the prehistoric world – these are but some of the marvelous array of themes covered by Frankfurt’s museums in an ensemble of buildings quite unique in Europe. Visit the Historical Museum Frankfurt displaying its striking new architecture alongside the reconstructed historical buildings of the former old town lining Römerberg square and take advantage of the offers of the neighboring Schirn Kunsthalle and the MMK Museum of Modern Art, which is considered one of the world’s most significant museums for contemporary art today. Cross the Eiserner Steg footbridge and once on the South side of the river, explore renowned exhibition houses such as the Museum of Applied Arts, the German Film Museum, and the German Architecture Museum. Let your tour come to an end at the remarkable annex of the Städel Museum. In addition, Frankfurt is known for an attractive series of cultural events. Not only the Night of the Museums in spring, but above all the Museum Embankment Festival in summer is a true highlight: As one of the biggest cultural events in Europe it attracts large numbers of visitors to its riverine setting every last weekend in August for a major celebration.

The Museum Embankment Ticket gives you access to 34 museums for two days. Available at the museum ticket desks!
